OUTDOORS & ADVENTURE

Many of those same qualities that drew the Pilgrims to settle in what was the Wampanoag village of Patuxet continue to attract visitors 400 years later. It may be known worldwide as the landing place of the Mayflower but the rare combination of fresh and saltwater recreation, state forest camping and hiking keeps outdoor enthusiasts coming back year after year.

LIGHTHOUSES

The Plymouth County coastline is home to several historic lighthouses.

The uniquely charming Duxbury Pier Light — also known as Bug Light — is in the middle of Plymouth Harbor.

Plymouth Light — also known as Gurnet Light — beckons at the entrance to Plymouth Bay and historic Scituate Light stands proudly on Cedar Point in Scituate.

Scituate Lighthouse, Scituate

Winter, spring, summer or fall...

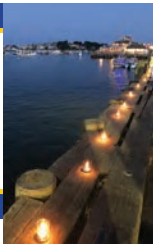

Scituate has it all!

Miles of beaches and scenic views, historic locations, unique shops, spas, award-winning restaurants, fishing, golf, year-round seasonal events and more!

BROCKTON

...for the water, workforce, and wonderful political support to meet your business needs!

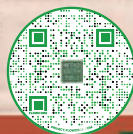

Brockton is centrally located on Route 24 between Routes 128 and 495, offering easy access to Boston, Providence, Plymouth, and Cape Cod.

The commuter rail provides full service to Boston from three stations in Brockton in just 35 minutes.

New England's only desalination plant supplies Brockton ample water. Perfect for Biotech companies!

CAPE COD AND THE ISLANDS

A vertical wooden post is stuck in the sand on a beach. The background shows the ocean with waves and a clear blue sky.

Reclaim cherished childhood memories of seashells and salty air or fall in love with "The Cape" for the first time. Charming village centers are home to quaint shops, trendy eateries and art galleries. Historic sites and landmarks tell the proud role that Cape Cod has played in American history.
