SHIP MAYFLOWER COMES HOME

Saturday, May 23, 2020, weather permitting, ship Mayflower returns to her berth at State Pier, in Plymouth. Through May 25, be among the first to step aboard her gleaming, newly restored decks.

508.746.1622
plimoth.org
An inspiring and powerful symbol of freedom and self-determination, ship Mayflower is Plimoth Plantation’s full-scale reproduction of the 1620 vessel that brought the English Colonists to the Wampanoag homeland of Patuxet - now known as Plymouth.

The iconic ship, a gift marking the friendship between the United Kingdom and the United States during World War II, recently underwent a three-year restoration.
THIS SIMPLE BOULDER
located in Pilgrim Memorial State Park in America’s Hometown has become a symbol of the courage and faith of the brave men and women who founded the first New England Colony. A trip to Plymouth wouldn’t be complete without a visit to “the Rock”.

- The Pilgrims may or may not have stepped on the Rock when they arrived.
- While the Pilgrims never mentioned it, over one million people visit the Rock each year.
- A descendant, Thomas Faunce, first told the Rock story in 1741.
- The story was repeated on the first Forefather’s Day commemoration in 1769.
- Pieces of the upper half of the Rock were moved to a wharf and to Town Square.
- After people began chipping off pieces, it was moved to Pilgrim Hall Museum.
- The upper half was reunited with the Rock in Plymouth Bay in 1880.
- The Rock was trimmed on all sides to fit under a canopy and 1620 was engraved on it.
- The Rock broke into three pieces while being moved in 1920 for the 300th anniversary.
- It was glued back together, and left where it is today, upon completion of a new canopy.
- It remains a symbol of the courage and faith of the Mayflower Pilgrims, who founded the first New England Colony.

To touch an authentic piece of the Rock, visit Pilgrim Hall Museum at 75 Court Street, Plymouth.

“THIS ROCK HAS BECOME AN OBJECT OF VENERATION IN THE UNITED STATES...IT IS TREASURED BY A GREAT NATION; ITS VERY DUST IS SHARED AS A RELIC.”

ALEXIS DE TOCQUEVILLE, 1835
National Monument to the FOREFATHERS

Dedicated to the Mayflower Pilgrims and their founding principles, the National Monument to the Forefathers is an 81-foot solid granite statue designed by Hammatt Billings.

Professional tour guides include park interpreters from the Massachusetts Department of Conservation and Recreation (DCR), who are caretakers, as well as a faith-based tour from the Jenney.

The famous monument was the subject of a 2012 documentary, Monumental, produced by actor Kirk Cameron.

PLYMOUTH’S MARITIME HISTORY

Plymouth harbor was an active and vital life force for the Wampanoag Tribe continuing to the arrival of the Mayflower Pilgrims in 1620. It was a working harbor throughout Colonial times, where fishing and lobster industries grew into a substantial maritime community.

The Plymouth Cordage Company was founded on the harbor in 1824 and, by the late 19th century, was the largest manufacturer of rope and twine in the world.
Today, the harbor is home to many recreational seaside activities and harbor cruises. The waterfront offers stunning views of the harbor, eclectic shops, a variety of restaurants and more.

LOBSTER TALES, PIRATES & PADDLEBOARDS

Plymouth Cruises provides a hands-on approach to harvesting lobsters. On the lobster excursion a few participants have the chance to pull up pots, crabs and more. Unlike charter fishing, all catches are returned to the harbor.

Plymouth Cruises also offers a pirate cruise aboard ship Lobster Tales. Children dress as pirates, sing pirate songs and laugh at pirate jokes as they prepare for a water cannon battle with the scurvy thief upon whose ship their stolen treasure chest lies.

For older kids paddleboard rentals are available for daytime and sunset excursions through Billington Sea Kayaks.

CONSERVATION

Beginning with Plymouth’s earliest residents and visitors, the natural resources that the area has to offer have been treasured and protected. Today, Plymouth is home to many environmentally responsible organizations.

Boston's south shore offers New England at its best with some of the oldest and most charming communities and picturesque regions in Massachusetts. With breathtaking views and quaint antique shops and village greens, coastal Plymouth County is quintessential New England.
HISTORICAL HOMES AND SOCIETIES

Kingston’s Bradford House is an excellent example of early 18th-century architecture. Norwell Historical Society provides tours of the Jacobs Farmhouse and historic talks and presentations for all ages. Marshfield’s The Daniel Webster Estate provides an enjoyable setting for events. Pembroke, rich in colonial history, boasts the 1685 Adah F. Hall House and the 1847 Museum Building.

In Scituate, see the Cudworth House Barn & Cattle Pound offering a glimpse of early Americana south of Boston. Hingham is home to Old Ship Church, the oldest wooden meetinghouse in America. Cohasset offerings include the Bates Ship Chandlery and the Captain John Wilson House.

that tangy little
Pilgrims, Thanksgiving, or cranberries... they all come from Plymouth County. The #1 agricultural crop in Massachusetts 400+ growers farm 14,000 acres of cranberry bogs each year!

In Cranberry Country, a colorful ritual begins just after Labor Day. Take a tour and see how cranberries have been harvested for 400 years.
